COMMERCIAL LIST RESPONSE

A. NATURE OF DISPUTE

1. The First Defendant (DSHE) agrees that the Plaintiffs' summary of the case (contained in paragraphs 1-19 of the Statement of Claim) reflects the plaintiff's contentions in the pleading.
2. The proceeding is brought at a time when the Liquidators' investigations are on-going.

B. ISSUES LIKELY TO ARISE

1. DSHE agrees that the common questions identified by the plaintiffs in paragraphs 226 - 228 of the Statement of Claim are likely to arise in the proceedings.

2. DSHE agrees that the issues raised in paragraphs 229 - 231 will arise if liability is proved against one or more of the defendants, but says they may not be common questions to all Group Members and may be questions to be dealt with on sub-group or individual basis.
3. If any of the defendants are found liable, should their liability be reduced proportionately having regard to the extent of responsibility for the loss of each liable defendant and the extent to which any other concurrent wrongdoer is liable for that same loss.
4. Are alleged admissions in the "Company's proceedings" (as defined) brought by the receivers and managers of DSHE, which are particularised in these proceedings by the plaintiff, matters which are admissions binding upon the First Defendant (a company that is in liquidation) in these proceedings.

XIII. CAUSATION LOSS AND DAMAGE

218. In answer to paragraph 218 of the Statement of Claim, DSHE:
- (a) admits that the plaintiffs purchased the shares as alleged, and further says that the plaintiffs sold 3,500 shares on 1 September 2015; and
 - (b) otherwise does not admit the allegations contained in the said paragraph.
219. In answer to paragraph 219 of the Statement of Claim, DSHE:
- (a) admits that the market in which DSE shares were traded was regulated by the ASX Listing Rules and s674(2) of the Corporations Act 2001;
 - (b) admits that the provisions of ss1041E and 1041H of the Corporations Act 2001 were in force when shares in DSHE were traded in the market;
 - (c) says, in answer to paragraph 219(c) that, it admits that the price of DSHE shares would reasonably be expected to have been informed or affected by material information disclosed to the ASX and by other publicly available information, amongst other factors affecting the price at which those shares were traded;
 - (d) repeats its response to Parts V, VII and VIII of this Commercial List Response and otherwise denies paragraph 95(d); and
 - (e) Otherwise denies the allegations contained in the said paragraph.
220. DSHE denies the allegations contained in paragraph 220 of the Statement of Claim.
221. DSHE denies the allegations contained in paragraph 221 of the Statement of Claim.

222. DSHE does not admit the allegations contained in paragraph 222 of the Statement of Claim.
223. DSHE denies the allegations contained in paragraph 223 of the Statement of Claim.
224. DSHE denies the allegations contained in paragraph 224 of the Statement of Claim.
225. DSHE does not plead to paragraph 225 of the Statement of Claim as it does not contain any allegations against it.

XIV. COMMON QUESTIONS

226. In answer to paragraphs 226 to 231 of the Statement of Claim, DSHE:
- (a) admits some of the questions of law or fact pleaded in the Statement of Claim are common questions of fact between the plaintiffs and the Group Members;
 - (b) says that some of the questions of law or fact may only be common questions as between certain groups or sub-groups of the plaintiffs and Group members; and
 - (c) otherwise denies the allegations contained in the said paragraphs.

XV. PROPORTIONATE LIABILITY

227. Further, or in the alternative, if DSHE is found liable to the plaintiffs and Group Members for contraventions of the Corporations Act 2001 as pleaded at Parts IX and X of the Statement of Claim (which are not admitted), it says that the claims of the plaintiffs and Group Members are 'apportionable claims' within the meaning of section 1041L of the Corporations Act 2001.

Particulars

- (a) For the purpose of this proportionate liability pleading only, and without admission, DSHE refers to and repeats the matters alleged in respect of Abboud in Part XI of the Statement of Claim and says that if those matters are established, and the plaintiffs and Group members have suffered loss or damage by reason of the alleged contraventions, Abboud is a concurrent wrongdoer (within the meaning of section 1041L of the Corporations Act 2001) in relation to each such claim made against DSHE.
- (b) For the purpose of this proportionate liability pleading only, and without admission, DSHE refers to and repeats the matters alleged in respect of Potts in Part XII of the Statement of Claim and says that if those matters are established, and the plaintiffs and Group members have suffered loss or damage by reason of the alleged contraventions, Potts is a concurrent wrongdoer (within the meaning of section 1041L of the Corporations Act 2001) in relation to each such claim made against DSHE.

228. Accordingly, DSHE's liability (if any) to the plaintiffs and Group Members is limited by section 1041N of the Corporations Act 2001 and to an amount reflecting that proportion of loss which is just, having regard to the extent of DSHE's responsibility for that loss.

229. In relation to proportionate liability, the Liquidators' investigations are ongoing. The Liquidators reserve their rights to identify additional concurrent wrongdoers.

D. QUESTIONS APPROPRIATE FOR REFERRAL TO A REFEREE

1. There are no questions appropriate for referral to a referee.

E. A STATEMENT AS TO WHETHER THE PARTIES HAVE ATTEMPTED MEDIATION; WHETHER THE PARTY IS WILLING TO PROCEED TO MEDIATION AT AN APPROPRIATE TIME

1. The parties have not attempted to mediate.
2. DSHE is willing to proceed to mediation at an appropriate time.
