

APPOINTMENT OF JUDICIAL CLERK (TIPSTAFF) TO THE CHIEF JUSTICE OF NEW SOUTH WALES

Applications are invited for the position of Judicial Clerk to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, the Honourable T F Bathurst AC.

Position description

The appointment will commence in late January 2021. Applicants are expected to continue on the staff of the Chief Justice for the year 2022 in the position of Research Director. Salaries in the 2019-2020 financial year are $67,853 pa for the Judicial Clerk position and $107,541 pa for the Research Director position. The salaries for the 2021-2022 financial year are yet to be determined.

The primary role of Judicial Clerk is assisting the Chief Justice with legal research. The Judicial Clerk also performs a range of court-related duties in Chambers, as well as spending a substantial amount of time in court. In the second year of appointment the tasks to be performed are almost entirely research based, including assistance drafting academic papers and speeches, with less frequent attendance in court.
