

Filings, disposals and pending cases

NOTES:

The figures for pending cases, from 2012 onwards, exclude cases that have been re-opened after judgment.

Pending caseload figures within the Common Law and Equity Divisions (or within case management lists within those Divisions) will not always reconcile with associated filing and disposal figures. This is because cases that are filed (commenced) in one case management list or Division may subsequently be transferred to another list or Division for further case management and disposal.

The statistics for 2011 through to 2015 for civil cases in the Common Law Division and for the Equity Division (other than the Adoptions List, Protective List and contested Probate List cases) have been extracted from the JusticeLink system.

The statistics for the Court of Appeal, Court of Criminal Appeal, Criminal List, Bails List, Adoptions List, Protective List and contested Probate List matters are not supplied through the JusticeLink system; they continue to be manually collated and are subject to audit and revision.

Applications for leave to appeal	101	86	81	60	63

¹ These statistics exclude holding notices of appeal, holding summonses for leave to appeal, and notices of intention to appeal because those forms do not commence substantive appeals or applications.

² These statistics cover Court of Appeal cases only. They are not comparable to “civil appeal” case statistics reported within the Productivity Commission’s Report on Government Services, which include all civil cases of an appellate nature, including appeals and reviews dealt with in the Common Law Division or Equity Division.

³ When a notice of appeal is filed after a successful application for leave to appeal, the appeal and the leave application are counted as one case (not two). For this reason, the figures for filings of notices of appeal (and applications for relief) and filings of applications for leave, combined, exceed the number of net new cases.

⁴ This item includes not only leave applications, but also applications where parties have elected to have a concurrent hearing of both the application for leave to appeal and the appeal (if leave is granted).

² Since 2005, the Court has used counting rules that align with national counting rules. Therefore the figures reported now are not directly comparable with those reported before 2005.

⁵ The figures for Bails List cases now count the number of applicants, not the number of applications. At a Bails List hearing, the Court may deal concurrently with multiple applications for any one applicant. Because the change in counting was implemented in mid-2013 and was not retrospective, an estimate has been made for the filings and disposals for 2013.

² All Possession List cases are assumed to be uncontested at the time of filing. If a subsequent defence or cross-claim is filed the case is listed for case-management and counted as a contested case.

² In this List, all applications types are counted, including information applications.

³ Typically, registrars finalise about 90 per cent of Corporations List cases.

⁴ During 2014 and 2015 a large number of inactive cases in this List were audited and, where appropriate, closed. Accordingly, the disposals figures are aberrantly high.

⁶ The Real Property List commenced on 1 June 2015. Some cases commenced earlier in the Equity General List have been transferred to this List for case management.

- ² For cases in the Court of Appeal and the Court of Criminal Appeal, the age of cases includes time taken to deal with any associated application for leave to appeal.
- ³ These figures include the effect of factors outside the control of the Court, such as the time taken to complete relevant cases in other courts or interlocutory appeals, time taken to prepare essential reports, and time occupied by trials that result in a hung jury.
- ⁴ The national standards are taken from the “backlog” performance indicator within the Courts chapter of the Report on Government Services (published by the Productivity Commission). Note that the national standards apply to district/county courts as well as supreme courts; consequently the national standards apply to a large range of indictments, criminality and civil case types. The case-mix of any court can influence that court’s capacity to achieve the standards. This Court’s Criminal List deals with a narrow range of offences, with most indictments presented being for homicide offences; other matters, generally involving the most serious criminality, may be brought but only with the approval of the Chief Justice. In contrast, most other supreme courts in Australia regularly deal with a broader range of offences. For civil non-appeal cases, all supreme courts in Australia continue to have difficulty achieving the national standards (see table 7A.21 of the latest Report on Government Services).
- ⁵ The figures exclude matters under Part 7 of the Crimes (Appeal and Review) Act (formerly s474D of the Crimes Act) and applications for re-determination of a life sentence.
- ⁶ The figures are comparable from year to year. The counting unit is defendants. Cases are considered to be pending until the time of sentence/acquittal or other final disposal. Where a trial collapses and a new trial is ordered, the counting of the age of the case is calculated from the date of committal (not from the date of the order for a new trial).

² The listing delays show the position at the start of the new law term (for example, for 2015 it is the position at the start of the 2016 law term). This removes the end-of-year impact of the law vacation.

³ This refers to substantive appeals (including those heard concurrently with a leave application). The listing delay is significantly shorter for a hearing of a leave application alone.

⁴ This refers to cases requiring at least 3 weeks of hearing time.

⁵ This refers to cases requiring up to 5 days of hearing time.

⁶ This refers to adult applicants receiving public funding. Applications by juveniles are usually heard within 2 weeks.

⁷ This refers only to General List and Probate (Contentious Matters) List cases requiring 2 or more days of hearing time before a judge.

¹ “Court-annexed mediation” refers to mediations conducted by the registrars of the Court who are also qualified as mediators. It excludes mediations conducted by private mediators.

² This section refers to court-annexed mediation listings for the year – note that referrals to court-annexed mediation that are made late in one year may result in listings early in the following year.

³ Throughout 2014 and 2015, the Court piloted informal settlement conferences for family provision cases where the estate was valued under $500,000. This pilot has reduced the number of cases being referred to the court-annexed mediation program (an example of this impact was given in the 2014 Annual Review).

⁴ This refers only to cases that have settled and either agreed upon finalising orders or drafted heads of agreement by the close of the mediation procedure. It does not include cases that advise a settlement at any later time (even though the mediation may have contributed significantly to reaching that settlement). In 2015, in addition to the 51% of cases that settled at the close of their court-annexed mediation session, a further 26% of cases were negotiating a settlement. The registry does not collect settlement data for mediations conducted by private mediators.

⁵ This is the waiting time to the first available group of mediation sessions within the court-annexed mediation program, as reported at the start of the new law term (for example, for 2015 it is the position at the start of the 2016 law term). The waiting time will be less if an urgent mediation session is ordered by the Court.

⁶ This covers all occasions when the Court refers a case to mediation, regardless of whether the mediation is to be conducted through the court-annexed mediation program or by a private mediator

⁸ Reduced usage of court-annexed mediation, as a result of the pilot of informal settlement conferences (see footnote 3), impacts these figures.
