

Filings, disposals and pending cases

NOTES:

The figures for pending cases exclude cases that have been re-opened after judgment.

Pending caseload figures within the Common Law and Equity Divisions (or within case management lists within those Divisions) will not always reconcile with associated filing and disposal figures. This is because cases commenced in one case management list or Division may subsequently be transferred to another list or Division for further case management and disposal.

The statistics for civil cases in the Common Law Division and for the Equity Division (other than the Adoptions List, Protective List and contested Probate List cases) have been extracted from the JusticeLink system.

The statistics for the Court of Appeal, Court of Criminal Appeal, Criminal List, Bails List, Adoptions List, Protective List and contested Probate List matters are not supplied through the JusticeLink system; they continue to be collated manually and are subject to audit and revision.

'n/a' – figures not available or not separately reported

'-' – item not applicable

'0' – zero count

Appeals / applications for relief	157	141	120	142	123
Applications for leave to appeal	53	43	58	63	46

¹ These statistics exclude notices of intention to appeal. A notice of intention to appeal does not commence a substantive appeal or application.

² These statistics cover Court of Appeal cases only. They are not comparable to 'civil appeal' case statistics reported within the Productivity Commission's Report on Government Services, which include all civil cases of an appellate nature, including appeals and reviews dealt with in the Common Law Division or Equity Division.

³ When a notice of appeal is filed after a successful application for leave to appeal, the appeal and the leave application are counted as one case (not two). For this reason, the figures for filings of notices of appeal (and applications for relief) and filings of applications for leave, combined, exceed the number of net new cases.

⁴ This item includes not only leave applications, but also applications where parties have elected to have a concurrent hearing of both the leave application and the appeal (if leave is granted).

² The Court uses counting rules that align with national counting rules, except concerning referrals from and to the Mental Health Review Tribunal (MHRT). Whenever the Court determines that an accused person is unfit to plead, it refers that person to the MHRT – the Court records that event as a case disposal. If the MHRT subsequently determines that the person is fit to stand trial, the Court records that event as a new case commencement. If the MHRT determines that the accused person is unlikely to be fit to stand trial within the next 12 months it notifies the Court, which then obtains advice as to whether the Director of Public Prosecutions intends to take further proceedings against the accused. If the Director of Public Prosecutions advises that the proceedings are to be taken further, then the Court records a new case commencement.

⁶ The statistics for 2019 are not directly comparable to previous years. Practice Note SC CL11 commenced on 3 June 2019 and set out a new practice and procedure for preparing and filing applications for hearing in the Bails List. Applications are now accepted only when they are accompanied by all material on which the applicant seeks to rely, and when the applicant's legal representation (or self-representation) is confirmed. Consequently, since June 2019 the operational figures are lower as they no longer include incomplete applications that would ultimately be withdrawn or dismissed.

² The High Risk Offender List commenced during 2018. Some cases, commenced earlier in the Common Law General List, were transferred to this List for case management and final disposal.

PROBATE – Applications lodged for grant of probate etc ⁴	26,243	27,294	26,538	27,438	26,661

² These figures include the effect of factors outside the control of the Court, such as the time taken to complete relevant cases in other courts/tribunals or interlocutory appeals, time taken by external agencies/individuals to prepare essential reports, and time occupied by trials that result in a hung jury.

³ The national standards are taken from the 'backlog' performance indicator within the Courts chapter of the Report on Government Services (published annually by the Productivity Commission). Note that the national standards apply to district/county courts as well as to supreme courts; consequently, the national standards apply to a large range of indictments, criminality and civil case types. The case-mix of any court can influence that court's capacity to achieve the standards. For criminal cases, for example, while other supreme courts in Australia typically deal with a broad range of offences, this Court deals typically with cases involving homicide offences (other matters, generally involving the most serious criminality, may be brought only with the approval of the Chief Justice). For civil non-appeal cases, all supreme courts in Australia continue to have difficulty achieving the national standards (see the 'Backlog' tables in the latest Report on Government Services).

⁴ The figures exclude matters under Part 7 of the Crimes (Appeal and Review) Act 2001 and applications for re-determination of a life sentence.

Timeliness – listing delays after the end of the year ^{1, 2}

	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020

Bails List ⁷	9 weeks	7 weeks	2 weeks	2 weeks	3.0 weeks
EQUITY DIVISION ⁸	5.3 months	4.5 months	6.0 months	6.7 months	6.3 months

² The listing delays show the position at the start of the new law term (for example, for 2020 it is the position at the start of the 2021 law term). This removes the end-of-year impact of the law vacation.

³ This refers to substantive appeals (including those heard concurrently with a leave application). The listing delay is usually shorter for a hearing of a leave application alone.

⁴ This refers to appeals against conviction. The listing delay is usually shorter for interlocutory appeals and appeals against sentence only.

⁵ From 2016 onwards, this refers to cases requiring at least 4 weeks of trial time.

⁶ This refers to cases requiring up to 5 days of hearing time.

⁸ This refers only to General List and Probate (Contentious Matters) List cases requiring 2 or more days of hearing time before a judge.

¹ 'Court-annexed mediation' refers to mediations conducted by those registrars of the Court who are also qualified as mediators. It excludes settlement conferences conducted by judges and mediations conducted by private mediators.

² This section refers to court-annexed mediation listings for the year – note that referrals to court-annexed mediation that are made late in one year may result in listings early in the following year.

³ This refers only to cases that have settled and either agreed upon finalising orders or drafted heads of agreement by the close of the court-annexed mediation session. It does not include cases that advise a settlement at any later time (even though the mediation may have contributed significantly to reaching that settlement). In 2020, for example, in addition to the 42% of cases that settled at the close of their court-annexed mediation session, a further 29% of cases were continuing settlement negotiations.

⁴ This refers only to cases using court-annexed mediation. The registry does not collect settlement data for mediations conducted by private mediators.

⁸ Referral for arbitration is possible for Supreme Court cases but no referrals have been recorded since 2006.
